The Christmas Story

About that time Caesar Augustus ordered a census to be taken throughout the Empire. Everyone had to travel to their hometown to be accounted for. So Joseph went from Nazareth to Bethlehem in Judah, David's town, for the census. As a descendant of David, he had to go there. He went with Mary who was going to have a baby. While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. She gave birth to a son, her firstborn. She wrapped him in a blanket and laid him in a manger, because there was no room in the inn. There were shepherds camping in the neighborhood. They had set night watches over their sheep. Suddenly, God's angel stood among them and God's glory shined bright around them. They were terrified. The angel said, "Don't be afraid. I'm here to announce a great and joyful event that is meant for everybody, all over the world: A Savior has just been born in David's town, a Savior who is Messiah and Master. This is what you're to look for: a baby wrapped in a blanket and lying in a manger." At once the angel was joined by a huge angelic choir singing God's praises: Glory to God in the heavenly heights. Peace to all men and women on earth who please him. As the angel choir withdrew into heaven, the shepherds talked it over. "Let's get over to Bethlehem as fast as we can and see for ourselves what God has revealed to us." They left, running, and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. When they saw this they believed what the angels had said. They told everyone they met what the angels had said about this child. All who heard the shepherds were amazed. Mary kept all these things to herself, holding them dear, deep within herself. The shepherds returned and let loose, glorifying and praising God for everything they had heard and seen. Everything happened exactly as God said!
